Public Transport, Cycling and Walking

NG Bailey's Central Scotland Headquarters are a short cycle ride or a 25 minute walk from Bellshill Railway Station, served by regular trains from both Glasgow and Edinburgh mainline stations. The following route is suitable for cycle or foot.

Exit Bellshill station onto Hamilton Road. Cross the road and turn left onto Glebe Street. Next, turn left along Main Street, past the Sir Matt Busby Sports Complex. Pass through the underpass opposite the sports complex and continue along Belgrave Street on the Bellshill Food Industrial Estate until you reach a double roundabout. Carefully cross both roundabouts, at the second roundabout follow the slip road down the hill towards Strathclyde Business Park. At the end of this road cross the road onto Phoenix Crescent and continue until you see the NG Bailey building on your right.

Cycle Storage and shower facilities are available on site. Details of the available shuttle bus service can be found at www.strathclydebusinesspark.com
